

Odyssey of the Mind

Instructor: MR. Jack Remondini

Class Goal

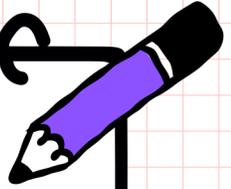

By the end of the semester students should:

- Be fully prepared to present their group project live to a collection of judges.
- Develop new skills such as teamwork, prop construction, and acting.

Materials Required

- _____
- Dedication from every student
- Plenty of pencils or pens
- A place to take notes
- Listening ears

Description

Eight students will work together to produce their very own original drama performance, and work together through both engineering and critical thinking exercises as a team, in order to prepare for the 'Odyssey of the Mind 2026 Tournament', on March 22nd.

Class Rules

- Engage with the class! Never be afraid to ask questions.
- Work with your team! If one member is slacking, everyone falls behind.
